Ricci Law Firm Opens Second Raleigh Office on May 1, 2025

Raleigh, NC – Ricci Law Firm Injury Lawyers is excited to announce the grand opening of its second Raleigh location, having officially opened its doors on May 1, 2025. The new office is located in Two Hannover Square (Truist Building) in the heart of downtown Raleigh:

434 Fayetteville Street, Suite 2120
Raleigh, NC 27601

This expansion reflects the firm's ongoing commitment to growing its presence in the greater Raleigh area and making top-tier legal representation even more accessible to North Carolinians.

"We're thrilled to deepen our roots in Raleigh with this additional location," said Brian M. Ricci, founder and owner of Ricci Law Firm. "This move supports our mission to serve more clients where they live and work, and to continue being a trusted voice for injured individuals throughout the region."

The new office at Two Hannover Square places Ricci Law Firm in a landmark downtown location – steps away from government buildings, businesses, and community hubs – offering convenience and visibility for clients seeking help with personal injury, workers' compensation, and other injury-related legal matters.

This new space joins the firm's already-established location in Raleigh and is part of a broader strategic initiative to saturate the Raleigh market through community outreach, client-centered service, and legal excellence.
