Eight Ricci Law Firm Attorneys Named to 2026 North Carolina Super Lawyers and Rising Stars Lists

Leading North Carolina personal injury and workers' compensation law firm earns statewide recognition

Greenville, NC – Ricci Law Firm Injury Lawyers is proud to announce that eight of its attorneys have been named to the 2026 North Carolina Super Lawyers and Rising Stars lists. This recognition is reserved for attorneys who have earned a strong reputation among their peers and demonstrated a high level of professional achievement in their respective practice areas.

The Super Lawyers selection process is known for being both selective and thorough. It combines peer nominations, independent research, and detailed evaluations. Each year, fewer than 5% of attorneys in North Carolina are named to the Super Lawyers list. The Rising Stars designation recognizes attorneys in the early stages of their careers who are already making an impact in their field, with no more than 2.5% of attorneys statewide receiving that distinction.

For Ricci Law Firm, this recognition reflects the strength of a team built around experience, consistency, and a shared commitment to the people they serve. The firm represents injured workers and accident victims across North Carolina, with offices in Greenville, Raleigh, and surrounding communities.

"At Ricci Law Firm, we've built a team that is deeply committed to doing right by our clients," said Brian M. Ricci, founder of Ricci Law Firm Injury Lawyers. "To see nearly a third of our attorneys recognized like this speaks to the level of talent, dedication, and care behind the work we do. We're proud to stand with individuals and families across North Carolina when they need it most."
